DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 26-66 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 8.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1, 3-4, 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Taggart (US 6,475,435).

Taggart discloses an apparatus and method for sterile packaging comprising fluid manifold 126; fluid shoe 150; wiper 216; pair of roller arms for holding caps (see figures 10-13). Manifold 126 and shoe 150 are in communication with each other and the other sterile air dispensers in the sterile tunnel 90. The fluid manifold 126 dispenses a hot sterile vapor (hydrogen peroxide solution), which is later dried by hot sterile air out of shoe 150.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Taggart (US 6,475,435) in view of Takehana et al. (US 4,888,936).

The fluid shoe of Taggart does not provide a fluid to the caps however Takehana et al. disclose a fluid dispensing shoe which dispenses a fluid to both containers and caps located in holding arms and then applied by wiper 9 (see figure 2). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the teachings of Takehana in the invention to Taggart for applying caps to bottles in a sterile manner.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
